Delay in Movement of Foodgrains Procured in Punjab

3225. SHRI PAWAN KUMAR BANSAL: Will the Minister of FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES be pleased to state:

(a) what is the time specified for the movement of foodgrains procured by Food Corporatioon of India on its behalf by the State agencies in Punjab;

(b) whether due to slow movement and lesser demand from the deficit States, wheat is often stored in Punjab States for a period longer than that specified;

(c) if so, whether due to lack of storage accommodation, a good part of the foodgrains is stored in the open resulting in deterioration in quality or total loss;

(d) whether quality grade cuts are applied by the Food Corporation of India at the time of taking over the stocks and the State has to bear the losses; and

(e) if so, what action has been taken to compensate the State for losses on this account?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY of FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD): (a) No specified time is fixed for movement of foodgrains.

(b) At present, the movement from Punjab is practically in accordance with the target fixed.

(c) Stocks which cannot be accommodated in covered godowns are stored under cover-and-plinth (CAP) storage. This method of storage is an approved method and the stored grains do not deteriorate if the instructions are followed properly.

(d) and (e) Quality/grade cuts are imposed by the Food Corporation of India at the time of taking over the stocks according to the specifications prescribed by the Government of India. The responsibility of maintenance of stocks after their procurement rests with the State or the procuring agencies. However, the State agencies are reimbursed reasonable incidentals on storage and maintenance of grains procured and held by them.
